

St. Cecilia Parish Pastoral Council Minutes

Date: October 2, 2019

Attendance:

Members Present: Therial Bynum, Carla Gaul, Fr. Grewe, Dani Hampton, Nora Kleinsasser, Sara Kleinsasser, Justin Knoble, Mac McLaughlin, Greg Penny, Brad Poeckes, Mary Wendl

Absent: Drew Gerken, Dani Hampton, Bett Reh, Alan Thelen

Start Time: The meeting began at 7:05 with a prayer by Father Grewe.

Reflection:

Today: Mac's reflection dealt with Faith, inspired by a family vacation to Florence and a statue of St. Thomas with Jesus after the Resurrection.

Next meeting: Brad Poeckes

Previous minutes: Minutes from the September were approved.

Standing committee reports:

- NA

Old Business:

- HVAC: the temporary fix to the AC worked. The AC will need to be replaced this Fall/Winter. Archdiocese may help offset the cost of replacement.
- Cathedralfest is this weekend Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Pray for good weather.
- Archbishop Lucas is trying to spend time at parishes in the Archdiocese. He will be at St. Cecilia's the weekend of November 2-3. The Archbishop will speak at each Mass that weekend. There will be a dinner Saturday night for parish leadership and Archbishop Lucas. This will be time to discuss what is good in our parish and what we think we need to work on.

Pastor's Report/New Business:

- Brother William will be retiring in 2020.
- STEAM lab in the grade school is up and running. Teachers will be trained on how to make the most of the technology. The dedication will be the weekend of Cathedralfest. Invitations have been sent public figures and area principles.
- The annual Parish Report went out with a new format. The new format was very informative and well received.

Review of Action Item:

- PPC will meet in November but not in December.
- Brad will give the reflection.
- Greg will bring refreshments.

Closing prayer and Ending Time:

- The meeting ended at 7:50 with a prayer.
